

Packing

by Mimi Lombardo
Style Director

Q: I'M HEADED TO NAPA FOR A FOOD FESTIVAL AND NEED TO KEEP MY LUGGAGE LIGHT (SO I HAVE PLENTY OF ROOM FOR EDIBLE SOUVENIRS!). HOW CAN I MAXIMIZE MY TRAVEL WARDROBE?

—REBECCA WASSERMAN, VIA E-MAIL

A: Two words: convertible clothing. These pieces work double- or even triple-duty, wherever you roam.

A leather jacket with zip-off sleeves becomes a vest—great for both warm afternoons and cool nights. $1,210, Sandro.

This two-sided silk dress can go glam for cocktail hour (just add heels and sparkling accessories). $349, Durga-Kali.

One gold-filled chain + multiple interchangeable charms = a necklace to match every outfit. Charms from $28, chain, $309, KZK Jewelry.

Swappable straps—in white, red, and orange—make your timepiece a fashion statement. $2,980, Baume & Mercier.

Reversible skinny jeans offer the versatility of blue denim and the swagger of a camo pant. $139, Cult of Individuality.

A neoprene tote that isn't just ultralight: turn it inside out for a printed bag-of-the-moment. $175, Rafe.

And for the man in your life: board shorts worth flipping over. $98, Tommy Bahama.